

Jonah KEVI

MY PERSONAL AUTOGRAPHY

My name is Jonah Kevi. I was born on the 12th of August, 1981, and I'm 33 years old. My parents name are John and Mathilda Kevi. We were six in the family, two boys and four girls. I am the second born in the family. I completed my 6 years in community school at Lorengau East and 4 years at Ecom high school. Then I had the desire to become priest, so I wrote a letter to the formation board at Kavieng Diocese, and I was selected to go to the formation house at Tuias where I completed my two years in spiritual formation in 2009 to 2010. After completing my two years in spiritual formation, I was sent to Rabual to do my two years of study in philosophy at Sacred Heart Inter-Diocesan Major Seminary at Rapolo from 2011 to 2012. In 2013 I was sent to do another spiritual year at Putput. While completing this year of spirituality at Putput, I was sent to Port Moresby to do my studies at Catholic Theological Institute in Bomana where I did my Religious Study 3. I graduated last year (in 2014) with an Advanced Diploma, and 2015 (this year) I'm doing my first year in theological study. Next year I'm going out for my pastoral year, and then I will continue my two years study again in CTI to complete my theology.
