

TEN „COMMANDMENTS“ FOR SEMINARIANS

Bomana, 8 October 2016

1. You opted to be a Seminarian in order to become a Religious or a Priest. But it is God who chose you. Be grateful everyday.
2. Your primary task is to be formed as a spiritual leader. So pray regularly and have a good relationship with Christ.
3. Your equal task is to focus on your studies to priesthood. Be committed.
4. Improve on your God-given talents and life skills such as music, gardening, carpentry, computer, table manners, relationships.
5. A disciple is one who has discipline in mind and body. Have a schedule for care of your body and mind.
6. Be balanced Spiritually, Emotionally and Mentally.
7. Have self-control in the use of alcohol. Have Right Relationship with women and children.
8. Transparency, credibility and creativity are essential aspects of your life and ministry.
9. Prepare well for your ministry of teaching and preaching. But let your life be an example.
10. Obey rules and your superiors. Faithfulness is necessary.