

I am seminarian Leisieta Isaiah, of Losilabe village, the Meudana Catholic Community, Kelologeia Parish from Alotau Diocese, which is headed by Bishop Rolando Santos.

I am 25 years old, from a family of four (4), three male and a female. Unfortunately our sister died last year. Father is a subsistence farmer, Mother does home duty. I am the first born in my family.

Education and work experience:

St. Joseph's Community School, Meudana, Grades 1 -6 (2001-2006);

St. Francis Xavier's Primary School, Kelologeia, Grades 7 & 8 (2007-2008);

Wesley High School, Salamo, Grades 9, 10, 11 &12 (2009-2012);

Youth leader, participated in the Alotau Diocese General Assembly, witnessed the Priesthood Ordination and Thanksgiving Mass for Rev. Fr. Aloysius Seduheia, Nicholas O'omu, and John Kubali, 2013;

Participating in these events motivated me to write my letter of interest to Bishop Rolando Santos and the Vocation Director, Fr. Mathew Ivayakula. My parish priest guided me;

Employed by Government (to look after the State House) 2014;

While working I wrote a second letter of interest in October, 2014;

Subsistence farmer, 2015;

Seminarian, 2016.

Interests: Gardening, playing soccer, reading books and telling stories.
