

My Brief Vocation Story

My name is Simeon Wartovo. I come from Manus Deanery, from the Diocese of Kavieng. My parish is Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, Bipi Parish. My home village is called Harengan.

Paul Wartovo is my dad's name, and Julie Sundu is my mother's name. My father works as a driver and my mother is just a simple housewife. I have six siblings. Four boys and two girls. Unfortunately, the second born died. The first born is currently working with the Bank of South Pacific. I am the third born studying in the seminary and the other three siblings are at home with our parents.

I started my education career in 2007. In 2016, I completed my 8th grade and was selected to Papitalai Secondary. In 2019, I went to Don Bosco Secondary to do my 11th and 12th grade. I entered the seminary in 2020. Currently I am in Holy Spirit Seminary and studying at Catholic Theological Institute.
